

Quadratic Equations

1. Define Quadratic Equation in your own words, using key ideas about type of equation.

2. Draw a symbol that represents or helps you remember Quadratic Equations. (Don't write an equation. What does it remind you of instead?)

3. Give an example of this type of equation. Why did you pick this particular equation?

4. How is this type of equation used in the real world, and who might use this type of math?